COUNTY JUDGE PURNELL BECOMES A BENEDICT TODAY

Married This Morning in Covington to One of Maysville's Most Charming Young Ladies.

The Ledger is pleased to announce the marriage of the Hon. Harry P. Purnell and Miss Ruth Nesbitt Hall at 10 o'clock this morning in Covington, Ky., the Rev. I. Cochran Hunt of the Presbyterian Faith performing the ceremony.

It was a very quiet affair, and in keeping with the wish of the contracting parties.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Hall.

Possibly his cousin in Maysville has more friends than this very popular man and woman. Harry Purnell was elected to the Legislature in 1915; and though in the minority, ably represented Mason county, showing rare judgment on important matters and with all so affable and courteous as to dismay his foes and make friends.

In 1917 he ran for County Judge, and won by a good majority in a democratic county.

His bride is a lovely girl and will ably assist her husband in executing those functions pertaining to official life and social status. She is very beautiful and is a great favorite among a large circle of friends.

After the honeymoon Judge and Mrs. Purnell will return to Maysville for future residence. The Ledger wishes many star bombs to light their path and the showers of good wishes fall upon their new united lives to be a good omen against all the ills of life.

EX-MAYSVILLIAN INJURED

Captain Edward Fitzgerald, for many years a resident of this city, now of Newport, was injured yesterday when a fire auto truck collided with a street car in Covington. Mr. Fitzgerald was cut by flying glass, but his injuries are not of a serious nature.

WHEAT RESTRICTIONS OFF; SUGAR RATIONS INCREASED

Monthly Sugar Ration Again Increased—Four Pounds Is the New Allotment.

Washington, November 14 — The Food Administration announced last night that the war restrictions on wheat and tin had been entirely removed, and that the sugar ration had been increased from three to four pounds a month in the best sugar producing states and in the cane sugar producing territory of Louisiana, effective December 1.

This action was taken because of the availability of sufficient sugar in that territory, and because the lack of cargo space for overseas shipment, together with the insufficient storage facilities in this country.

This ruling means that the American housewife need no longer bother about buying substitutes for wheat flour, and the corner grocer may sell wheat flour without requiring the housewife to buy cornmeal or rye or anything else if she does not want to.

Great relief also will be experienced by the ruling on tin. The long list of rulings specifying that food containers shall not be made of tin in part or whole is nullified by the administration's action today.

The Food Administration has announced that the war restrictions on wheat have been entirely removed, and that any one can now buy wheat flour without bothering about substitutes, and grocers can now sell flour without requiring customers to take substitutes.

W. D. COCHRAN,
County Food Administrator.

COL. ELGIN SOME JUMPER

Col. James W. Elgin, who is rated in the A-1 class of insurance people, can also be rated as some jumper. Wednesday afternoon as he was coming down the hill in his auto from his home on Edgemont the steering gear went wrong, and of course the machine went wrong, too, and went over the bank and down into a deep ravine, badly damaging the machine. Mr. Elgin knew just when and how to jump and the door of the machine being opened he waited for no one to tell him, but jumped, and we are pleased to say escaped injury.

INTO GERMANY U. S. TROOPS HAVE CROSSED

Are Now On Their Way to Occupy Metz and Strassburg—Foch to Make His Entry Sunday.

Paris, November 14 — American troops have crossed the German frontier toward Metz and Strassburg. Marshal Foch, commander-in-chief of the Allied armies, will make solemn entries into Strassburg and Metz on Sunday in the presence of President Poincaré and Premier Clemenceau.

The French cabinet will hold an extraordinary meeting today, the Matin announces, to consider important military and administrative questions concerning Alsace and Lorraine. The government intends to appoint two governors, with headquarters at Metz and Strassburg, as soon as the Allies occupy the provinces. Three missions, made up of officials speaking German and the Alsatian patois, it is added, will be entrusted with arranging administrative questions. Their headquarters will be in Metz, Strassburg and Colmar.

Presiders Urge President to Attend

Washington, November 14 — It is understood that the Premier Lloyd George and Clemenceau have suggested pressing that the President should at least attend the opening sessions of the peace conference.

Balfour and Sonnino on Mission to Paris

Paris, November 14 — A. J. Balfour, the British foreign secretary, and Baron Sonnino, the Italian foreign minister, will arrive in Paris today, the Journal says. Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain and Premier Orlando will follow the foreign secretaries shortly. On their arrival, it is added, discussions will begin to prepare the preliminaries for peace.

3,000 TURKEYS COME OUT OF SCOTT COUNTY HILLS

Sadleville, Ky., November 14 — New England—Or, to be exact, from 12,000 to 15,000 New Englanders—will have their usual Kentucky turkey this Thanksgiving.

This was "turkey day" here, and from out of the hills of Scott county trooped 3,000 odd turkeys, all young and fresh and delicious.

All oblivious to their impending fate, the birds marched to the Sadleville depot and there were loaded into trains and wagons, whence they started to the slaughter-house at Lexington.

It was a Boston commission man who, two years ago, estimated that 2,876 turkeys received from Scott county provided the most substantial part of the Thanksgiving dinner of 14,380 New England folk—each bird serving, he calculated, an average of five persons.

MRS. G. W. EDGINGTON

Mrs. G. W. Edgington, aged 67 years, died at her home at Augusta Tuesday, from the effects of an attack of influenza, the direct cause of her death being bronchitis.

Before her marriage she was Miss Nannie Scott, a native of Brown county, Ohio, but had lived in Augusta for the past twenty-eight years. She was the mother of eight children, six sons and two daughters, six of whom survive—Emery, Arch, Fred, Drew and Roy, and Mrs. J. E. Smith. One son, Ernest, and a daughter, Estelle, having died a number of years ago, her husband also survives. Funeral services will be conducted at the home Thursday morning, after which the body was taken to Manchester, Ohio, for burial.

NEW RAILROAD AGENT FOR SOUTH RIPLEY

Mr. H. K. Shaw, agent of the C. & O. Railway at New Richmond, Ohio, has been appointed agent for the same road at South Ripley. He is a brother-in-law of Mr. W. B. Cliff of Ripley, and comes highly recommended. He succeeds C. O. Jaynes, deceased. Arch Eveslage has been filling the position since last summer when Mr. Jaynes was compelled to retire on account of illness.

RESTRICTIONS ON COAL FOR FLORISTS RELAXED

Kentucky florists are authorized, according to a letter received by George E. Schultz, president of the Kentucky Society of Florists, from Wiley E. Bryan, Federal Fuel Administrator for Kentucky, to burn until further notice bituminous screenings, bituminous mine run and coke breeze without having such fuel apply on their regular 50 per cent. quota.

Mr. James Clarke of Covington, is visiting his brother, D. P. Clark of East Second street.

JOINT SESSION OF CITY COUNCIL AND BOARD OF HEALTH

Called For Purpose of Finding Out Influenza Conditions in This City and Community.

City Council met Wednesday night in a joint session with the City Board of Health, the purpose of the meeting being to find the true status of the conditions in Maysville relative to influenza and the modification of the ban placed by the State Board of Health.

In the absence of Mayor Thomas M. Russell, the chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, Member Allen Dodson, presided.

The regular business of Council was taken up first, this being an adjourned meeting for the purpose of taking up and destroying bonds and interest coupons. Emergency bonds to the amount of $16,500, school bonds to the amount of $6,000 and $2,000 in interest coupons, having been taken up by the Ways and Means Committee, were gone over carefully, referred to a special committee, composed of members Watkins, Smith and George Dodson, who checked them up and destroyed them.

An erroneous assessment of four years poll-tax against Thomas Clooney, deceased, had been made, and as the taxes had been paid, Council referred it to the Proposition and Grievances Committee.

The meeting then went into a joint session, with the Board of Health which was present, together with Health Officer Locke and a number of physicians, also with a large number of business men and private citizens. Mr. Frank Clarke, President of the City Board of Health, made a statement as to the work done and being done by the Board in this city, and Health Officer Locke stated that as near as he could figure it, from reports of physicians, there had been 2,351 cases of influenza in this city and county, there being at present 389 cases, with 47 new cases reported Tuesday night. After statements by Drs. Smoot, Taulbee, Taylor, Hutchins, Quigley, Samuel, McGuire, Patton and Yazell, all agreeing that the influenza conditions were better, but several did not think it wise to lift the ban, while others thought it should be modified to some extent.

The joint session adjourned with the ban still a ban, with no trimmings of any kind. As the City Board of Health is acting under instructions from the State Board, it seems to be an assured fact that there will be nothing done toward lifting or even modifying the ban this week.

Council then took up some other business, among it being the allowance of an overdraft at the State National Bank created last August by those in charge of the city alms giving at the Mission, amounting to $16.42, which was allowed.

The matter of the bridge on the Mt. Carmel turnpike near the East end of Forest avenue was left in the hands of Chairman Watkins of the Internal Improvement Committee.

Nothing further of importance. Council adjourned subject to the call of the Mayor.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Frazier of Plainfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Nate Doans of Coal Bluff, Ind., have returned home after a pleasant visit with Mrs. Carrie Robb of East Third street and other relatives in Mason and Fleming counties, having made the trip in Mr. Doans' auto.

FATHER LOSES CLAIM TO HIS SON AFTER 33 YEARS

Court of Appeals Upholds Jesse Bernard, Who Paid Debt on Property.

Frankfort, Ky., November 14—Jesse Bernard held title to fifty acres of land in Lawrence county adversely to his father, who had abandoned his family, said the Court of Appeals yesterday in an opinion by Judge Thomas upholding a lease for oil granted by parties taking title through Jesse Bernard.

His father, Ira, deserted his family in 1880, and Jesse took this fifty-acre tract, for which his father held only a title bond partially paid for, and finally transferred it to his mother, who devised it to her son, Charles.

Some thirty-three years later, having been lost sight of all that time, Ira turned up to claim the property, located in developed oil territory.

The Big Blaine Oil & Gas Company held a lease through Jesse and Charles Bernard, and F. H. Yates from Ira.

The Court of Appeals held that Jesse Bernard, who had paid off the debt and improved the property, held in adversely to his father for sufficient length of time to acquire title and directed that the petition of Yates to gain possession should be dismissed.

Reds are now wholly in control of many Radical Socialist dominating the government at Berlin.

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the County as a whole.

NEMESIS

They that sow the wind shall reap the whirlwind is being exemplified in Germany on a grander scale than the world has ever seen. The precepts of the noble Mosaic law, "An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth," &c., are, after years of Christian teaching and preaching, being exacted upon the German war lord and his brood murderers and pyromaniacs.

The law of Christian charity has been set aside in this great hour for the operation of the divider law of retribution. Outraged humanity, outraged justice, outraged Divinity call in this hour for the levying of punishment commensurate with the most infamous crime of all the centuries. "Vengeance is mine, saith the Lord God of Hosts," and who can doubt that a God of righteousness and justice is now visiting upon the Hohenzollerns the splendid wrath that only an outraged and angry God can show. No attribute of the Deity, omnipotence, omniscience, mercy, justice or goodness is violated in the belief that He is wreaking condign punishment upon the despoilers of civilization and religion.

Germany is now walking through the red shambles that she instituted in Russia; she is wading through the sea of fire and unreason that she kindled among the Slavic cities and peoples. With her skulking Kaiser fleeing from the tottering pillars of an erstwhile majestic and powerful nation, Germany is aflame with revolution and destruction. Retributive justice is being meted out by the God of nations while the chivalric defenders of civilization await at her borders the word that will bring peace to a distracted world at once, or that will mean a continuation of the direful conflict until all the was once called the Imperial German Empire shall have been crushed and a new order of things established.

In this sublime spectacle the world has reassurance that God is still in His heaven and that the cosmic order cannot be effectually disturbed by a mad man or men. The foundations of faith so ruthlessly shaken in the four years of unparalleled conflict are being re-established. The old order will return, but purified and refined by the fires of the crucible through which it has passed. Victor Hugo once said that Napoleon overran Europe with his schemes of world conquest until he annoyed God. The ego of the Corsican became so great that it threatened the Divine plans, and then the end came for the adventure. We think the Kaiser annoyed God both with his blasphemy and with his scheme of world dominion. Finis is being written to the career of another arch egoist.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

JUST CAUSE FOR PRIDE

We know one young woman whose proud boast it is that she has the influenza, no one else took it from her. And this is something worth boasting about.

Most of the other flu sufferers we know of have been complaining bitterly because no one came to see them, or have been telling us scornfully that there was no danger because the doctor said they couldn't possibly give it to any one now, etc., etc. But this one girl not only didn't talk about loneliness, but didn't allow any of her friends to come near her. Every precaution of cleanliness was observed; and, when the disease was past, her rooms were thoroughly disinfected. So, although she lived in a house full of other people, not one of them caught the disease.

If everybody else had been equally careful, perhaps we shouldn't have had any epidemic, or at least not so bad a one. But we have to be pretty badly scared before we begin to use common sense in sickness. We are too social about our ailments, flaunting them about instead of getting rid of them as soon as possible by isolation, good care and cleanliness.

It is reported that President Poincare kissed Sam Gompers when they met in Paris. What did Raymond take for the infection?

PEACE

By Mrs. J. H. Kahne.

Again we hear the word
And the very depths of our soul is stirred
As we cry aloud "The war has ceased
Instead of war there shall be peace
Oh! Say it again to all the living,
That one word peace so full of joy giving
The sun shines from above
On lands of peace and love.

Now let me whisper softly the word
To our boys—I'm sure it will be heard
Oh! Hear ye our country's brave and true,
Who fought the battles through and through.
The war is over—there is peace
The gun and cannon roar has ceased.
The sun again shines from above
On lands of peace and love.

Our boys sailed away in the dead of night,
Willing to do and fight for the right;
Quietly they sailed without trumpet or drum
Anxious to heed their comrades call, come;
They said we'll fight and the war must cease,
We'll gain the victory there shall be peace
And the sun again shall shine from above
On lands of peace and love.

So whisper softly that the boys may hear,
Those who lie sleeping far and near.
Oh! Hear ye our boys of the States so brave
As ye lie sleeping in a heroes grave.
The gun and cannon roar has ceased
And ye now can sleep in peace.
The sun again shines from above
On lands of peace and love.

Your sacrifice was not in vain
Where victory is mentioned—the hall of fame
We say it with our eyes aflame;
Your deeds were brave. Great is your name
With God's aid and yours the foe was crushed;
The gun and cannon roar have hushed.
There's peace again with us rejoice
No more lives to sacrifice
And the sun again shines from above
On lands of peace and love.

MOTHER HEARS SOLDIER SON, BELIEVED DEAD, IS ALIVE

In Joplin, Mo., may be found one of the happiest mothers in the United States. The son she supposed dead is alive. She learned this yesterday through Carl H. Peterson of Wilmette.

The son is Maurice Chapman of Webster Grove, Mo., who was fighting with the Yanks in the Argonne drive. He is now recovering in an army hospital.

Early in October a shell exploded near Chapman. He was wounded and partly buried by the explosion. The regimental chaplain, Harold L. Reader, passed by and believing Chapman dead, took his identification disk reported his death. Soon after stretcher bearers came along and found Chapman alive.

A sensational damage suit was brought in the Fleming Circuit Court last week when C. C. Gross filed a petition asking $20,000 damage of James Ledford, a wealthy farmer of Bath county, alleging that Ledford alienated the affections of the plaintiff's wife.

Dr. E. T. Bantin, aged 36, died at his home at Tilton, Fleming county, after a few days illness of pneumonia.

PUMPKIN LIQUOR

Put 'em in a pumpkin shell but didn't keep 'em very well. The festive bootlegger has invented a new way to "get by" over in Montgomery county. The Sentinel-Democrat says: "We have read of the various camouflages invented for the purpose of introducing the liquid refreshments into dry territory but it remained for John Losses, a well known local police character of color, to use the humble pumpkin as a container for the forbidden juice. John got off the evening train from Lexington Wednesday with a large but innocent pumpkin under his arm. Wondering why John should have gone all the way to Lexington to make his purchase, when pumpkins were so plentiful right here at home, an inquisitive police officer investigated. Close inspection revealed a neat plug in the outer wall, which when removed disclosed a motely array of half pint bottles filled with joy-water. John says 'dem bottles jest narchyerly grew in dat punkin.'"

The American Army has ordered from one packer 99,500,000 pounds of bacon and 134,000,000 pounds of other meats. To fill the order will require 1,500,000 hogs.

FIGHTING THE BATTLE FOR TRUE DEMOCRACY

Secretary Houston Asks Farmers to Support War Work Agencies Everywhere to Their Utmost.

Washington, D. C.—A message to American farmers, asking their support of the United War Work Campaign, was issued today by David F. Houston, Secretary of Agriculture. The message is as follows:

"To the Farmers of America"
"Three million American boys, on the battlefields in France, in the cantonments on this side, and on our great ships everywhere are fighting the battle for Democracy.

"Back of them is another army—the splendid, untiring men and women on the farms of America, who have taken upon the additional burden laid upon them by the absence of many of their boys, and by their toil and sacrifice have produced the crops that today are helping to feed the Allied world. From you, who are the soldiers of that army, every patriotic call has had an unhesitating and united response.

"Today in the name of the President of the United States another call is sent to you on behalf of your sons and brothers. They are far away from their own homes; yet through the generosity of the American people the influence of the homes which they have left still follows them. Seven great organizations have taken it upon themselves to do for the boys in camp and at the front the things which every parent would wish to do for them if he could.

"These seven agencies are the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., National Catholic War Council, Jewish Welfare Board, War Camp Community Service, American Library Association, and the Salvation Army. Together these splendid societies represent every one of the best elements in our American life. Their huts are the soldier's church, his college, his library, his club, his theatre, and his gymnasium.

"To provide this comfort; to make the American home follow the American flag, requires money in large amounts. These seven agencies will need more than one hundred and seventy millions to push their work forward through the forthcoming months. And, because their work is done in the same spirit, and for the same great end, they have wisely agreed to make their appeal to the public not separately but together.

"That appeal, which will be made you in the week of November 11-12 will offer the American people one of the most splendid opportunities of the war to signal across the seas their united support of the boys who are fighting there. The cause is great; the total amount asked for is great; but not greater than the patriotism of the American farmers. Every house that flies a Service Flag will have a special interest in the success of that campaign. For every dollar means added cheer and comfort to the son of such a house.

"On behalf of the Administration I send you this great call. But more particularly on behalf of the boys themselves. In the chill and damp of those French villages they are waiting for your answer—waiting for you to say to them: 'No matter how great the sum, we promise that you shall have the comforts of life over there. The success of this United War Work Campaign is the proof that we are standing shoulder to shoulder behind you.'"

D. F. HOUSTON,
Secretary of Agriculture.

HINTS TO HELP MOUNTAIN FARMERS

Washington, D. C.—Three million five hundred thousand people live on 500,000 hill farms in West Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, and the western portions of Virginia and North Carolina, and gain only a scant subsistence from their farming operations. On many of these farms the average annual receipts from the sale of live stock, poultry, eggs, and butter aggregate only $100. Most of the farms are from ten to thirty-five miles from the railroad; rough mountain roads which are impassable during the worst season of winter are the only outlets which connect these hill farmers with civilization.

It is the desire of the United States Department of Agriculture to render every possible assistance to these mountaineers in order that their farming operations may be conducted more profitably. With this end in mind the Federal specialists recommend that the farmers of the southern mountains should grow three or more crops in rotation, including clover, in order that the individual farmer may be able to produce larger crops and make more money, and keep the majority of the crop land under cultivation all the time. Furthermore, they suggest that more cattle, hogs, and sheep should be maintained, as such live stock will not only increase the cash income, but also will help materially in improving fertility conditions which, in the long run, will make for the production of larger crops. A four-year rotation of soy beans, rye, clover, and corn is well adapted for use on these southern mountain farms.

Sell Animal Products

It is urged that each farmer practice a system of management which will allow him to convert his surplus grain and roughage into such concentrated marketable produce as cheese, butter, bacon, hams, and sausage, as the comparatively high value of these commodities per pound makes it possible to transport them long distances over rough roads at a profit to the producer. Recommendation is made that all the mountain communities which are not readily accessible to markets should organize and operate cooperative cheese factories, wherever possible. The cost of equipping one of these small factories rarely exceeds $1,000, which means an outlay on the part of twenty farms of only $50 apiece. The whey, a by-product of the cheese making, is a valuable food for hogs.

"Resting" Land Unprofitable

The common practice of letting the land lie idle for a few years to "rest" after it has produced a crop of corn is not necessary. Under the usual system of farming in the hill country even the rich coves on mountain sides are seriously depleted in fertility after three or four years. Rotation of crops keeps up fertility as well if not better than letting it "rest" and grow up to weeds. At the same time this practice brings a farmer more money, since it keeps the land busy all the time.

practical rotation can be begun by cropping one-fourth of the tillable area in the spring to soy beans, which may be harvested for hay. Subsequently the bean stubble can be harvested and prepared for a crop of winter rye. The clover should be sown on the rye land during the late winter or early spring, so that the field may remain in clover for two years. At the end of this period it should be broken and cropped to corn and then the rotation should be repeated. Managed in this way the average farm can carry two to three cows, five to six young cattle, and a sow with five or six pigs. Several sheep may also be kept as well as a team of horses. Small patches of alfalfa or sweet clover may also be grown whenever possible for hog pasture.

Under this new system of management without an increase in the tillage area or a change in the market

"Trouble Man" Sees That All Banks Or Towns Get Liberty Loan Credits

THE trouble man's job is usually a thankless one, no matter what his line of work. He's turned if he does and turned if he doesn't.

Such a man is M. J. Fleming, assistant cashier of the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland. He has been trouble man in the Fourth Liberty Loan.

Fleming has had charge of allocation of subscriptions. If your county was one of the counties in which there was debate as to who should get the credit for this or that corporation's Liberty Bond purchases, you have some idea what Fleming has to contend with.

So that credit would be properly placed in the Fourth Loan the Treasury department ordered that any big corporation—such as insurance companies, beneficial orders, chain stores, coal companies with widely distributed mines or manufactories, with branch plants—might make its subscription to the bonds in New York or wherever it had headquarters. But credit had to be divided so that cities and counties in which branches were situated and banks with which the branches did business were given their proper proportionate credit.

The process of awarding these credits is known as allocating. While none of the bonds bought by the corporation are actually bought in the places credited through any bank out of the home office, bank credit is awarded against quotas in the branch places.

The Prudential Life Insurance Company's subscription is a good example of such a subscription. The entire purchase of that company was taken through the home banks, but fifty banks and localities in the Fourth District were given credit for parts of the Prudential's subscriptions.

Hold Your Fourth Liberty Bonds—It'll Pay Tax Day

There may be something of a strain on a large number of pocketbooks when payment days of Fourth Liberty Bonds come around. But these same bonds are injecting the brightest rays of light into the shadow of the tax return contemplation of a good many people just now.

And those buyers of Fourth Loan bonds are just beginning to realize that they have selfish as well as patriotic reasons for being glad they are bondholders—and for continuing to hold them.

The income received after January first of this passing year from the four per cent and the four and one-quarter per cent Liberty bonds of previous issues is exempt from income surtaxes, excess profits and war profits tax for the period of the war and two years after, providing—always providing—the bond owner retains his Fourth Loan bonds at the date of the tax return.

If he sells his bonds of this latest issue before that date he loses this privilege.

facilities, the average farm income could be increased from the existent standard of approximately $100 to a new point of approximately $650, which would afford better living conditions. In many cases the owner could continue seasonal work in lumbering, hauling, or in the coal mines, while others in the family could perform most of the necessary farm work. The proposed system need not interfere to any extent with the home industries already established, such as spinning, weaving, and the making of baskets and furniture, and does not necessitate any increase in the amount of work stock kept. Information of practical value to the southern mountain farmer is now available in Farmers' Bulletin 905, "Ways of Making Southern Mountain Farms More Productive." It is suggested that every farmer in the mountain country should obtain a copy of this publication and as far as possible institute such tillage, cropping, and marketing programs as are suggested.

LIBERTY FLOCKS FOR CALIFORNIA

Four thousand sheep have already been placed on California farms in a campaign recently initiated by the farm bureau counties of that State. The farm bureaus will take large bands of sheep from the grass ranges and place them in small "Liberty flocks" on individual farms. The grass ranges have been so depleted, owing to two successive dry seasons, that many of the sheep would die, due to pasture shortage, if some other provision were not made for them. "Liberty flocks" is the proper designation for these bands which will provide food and clothing for our Army.

peace. The first sub-commission is to deal with administrative, judicial, and social questions, the second to treat industrial, commercial and agricultural problems.

The two sub-commissions will be subdivided into certain sections to be determined by the president of the Cabinet who with two chairmen of the sub-commissions and several directors of individual groups will constitute the central commission. Officials peculiarly fitted to discuss certain questions may be called to sit in counsel with the various sections of the sub-commissions.

The central committee will draft the general program to be followed, apportion the questions to be treated by the sub-commissions, examine the findings of the sub-commissions and on the basis of their decisions draw up a general report for Parliament. The personnel of the committees and sections will be nominated by the president of the cabinet.

VICTORIA CROSS TO BRAVE PIPER

London—Five new Victoria crosses have been awarded, the recipients of three of which have been killed. The most thrilling accompaniment the award to Piper James Richardson of a Manitoba regiment.

Prior to the attack he obtained permission to play his company "over the top". As the company approached its objective it was held up by extremely strong wire and came under an intense fire which caused heavy casualties which momentarily demoralized the formation.

Richardson, realizing the situation strode up and down with the greatest coolness. The effect was instantaneous. Inspired by his splendid example, the company rushed the wire with such fury and determination that the obstacle was overcome and the position captured.

Later, after participating in bombing operations, he was detailed to take back wounded comrades and prisoners. After proceeding 200 yards he remembered that he had left his pipes behind. Although strongly warned he insisted on returning to recover his pipes. He was never seen again and is accordingly presumed dead through lapse of time.

Among the chemicals derived from the coking of coal in by-products are sodium cyanide, carbonic acid, ammonium bicarbonate, sulphur chloride, bases for dyes, and high explosives.

Italy Prepares for Peace

The Germans sent the raven forth over the earth now deluged in human blood, blood not only of men in arms, but the blood of ravaged women and murdered children. Whether the German raven returned with tokens favorable to the war lords in the Prussian ark is a mooted question, but we have reason to believe that over the same course the German nation is now trying out the dove.

Of one thing we are certain, the peace dove will return with an empty beak or it will carry an olive branch of allied design which will absolutely lack all signs of the trade mark "Made in Germany."

For four long weary years the civilized world has been submerged by the tide of the greatest war in history. It now seems that the storm has almost spent itself and that soon we will land on terra firma and get back to normal conditions.

This will not come suddenly. It will take time, possibly years, and the task of readjusting years, and the task of readjusting ourselves and our lives to the peaceful order of things will not be as difficult as it was to do so during a war for which we were unprepared.

We could not foresee the coming of the war but we do foresee the coming of peace and among our allies one nation at least is wisely making preparations for such a time. That nation is Italy.

The Italian government, according to a consular report of recent date, has already established a central and two auxiliary commissions to study and to formulate measures necessary to pass from a state of war to one of

VALUABLE ADVICE

Maysville Citizens Should Profit By The Following Statement.

Doan's Kidney Pills were used by this Maysville resident. Their merit was shown—the story told.

Now comes further evidence. The testimony is confirmed. The remedy was tested—the results lasted.

Could Maysville residents demand stronger proof?

It's Maysville testimony. It can be investigated. A Sorries, lock and gun-smith, W. Second and Wall Sts., gave the following statement in January, 1912: "The action of my kidneys was irregular and the kidney secretions contained sediment. I had backaches and when I stooped over, I had trouble in straightening up. Colds settled in my back and kidneys, too. Doan's Kidney Pills stopped the trouble and my back and kidneys became as strong and well as ever."

A LASTING EFFECT
On November 14, 1916, Mr. Sorries said: "I am the same strong believer in Doan's Kidney Pills today, as when I gave my former endorsement. I haven't had any trouble with my kidneys in that time and I believe the cure they gave me will be permanent."

Mr. Sorries is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mr. Sorries had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60 cents at all stores. BACK TO BOYHOOD!

New York—The victorious American soldiers across the seas will now "spin the top" instead of going "over the top."

The boyhood game has become popular among the soldiers, and the Knights of Columbus announced that 100,000 tops have been sent to France.

The Overseas Secretaries of the organization have been supplied with overalls, it was stated, as work during the reconstruction period frequently will require their use.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Friends in this city have received the following:

Charles Gosner has announced engagement of her daughter Miss Edith Grimes to Mr. Gerard E. McGrath of Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

The marriage is to be solemnized by Mr. McGrath's return from France.

Mr. McGrath, who is now in France, was for some time an employee of the Bates & Rogers Construction Company at the Government dam here and was quite a popular and capable workman. Miss Grimes is a Maysville High School graduate and is now a resident of Fairmont, W. Va.

PERFECT WOMANHOOD

Perfect womanhood depends on perfect health. Beauty and a good disposition both vanish before pain and suffering. A great menace to a woman's happiness in life is the suffering that comes from some functional derangement which soon develops headaches, backache, nervousness and "the blues." For such suffering, women find help in that famous old root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for three generations has been restoring health to women of America.

WASHINGTON OPERA HOUSE

KENTUCKY'S WAR FUND NOW STANDS AT $1,066,112

With 19 Out of 20 Districts Reporting, the Quota Will Soon Be Reached —$704,688 Still Needed.

Kentucky passed the million-dollar mark yesterday in the big United War Work campaign drive with a total subscription to date of $1,066,112.

The State quota is $1,770,800, and a 50 per cent. oversubscription is asked.

From reports coming in from all parts of the State the oversubscription looks to be a certainty.

Once again Boone county, in the Eleventh district, distinguished herself. The shades of the immortal Daniel must still be stalking the woods up along the Ohio River. Boone was the first county in the State to go over the top by raising her quota and then some. Also she is the first county in the State to reach not only her quota, but also the 50 per cent. oversubscription. From last reports the people were still subscribing.

The total raised by the women in the State, so far reported and classified, is $53,749. It should be stated, however, that in many counties the women's total is included in the general total. The students have raised to date 15,868, and thirteen schools have passed their quota. The Victory Boys' total is $7,281, and the Victory Girls, $7,238. The total for the colored people is $3,435.

"It looks like Kentucky is going to distinguish herself," said State Campaign Director C. A. Tevebaugh at State headquarters in Louisville last night.

"Even the woods in the mountains seem to have caught fire with the spirit of the big drive, and the 'home fires' of Kentucky are certainly burning brightly for the boys over there and over here.

"Reports are coming from Europe that the seven agencies in the drive are greatly in need of money and of workers, and the same is true of this country.

"Peace has brought added responsibilities, and we cannot talk too much about the necessity of raising the 50 per cent. oversubscription we have been asked to do.

"The people of Kentucky will never forgive themselves if they fail now." Kentucky colleges are still going strong. Thirteen have already oversubscribed their original quotas. They are: Asbury at Wilmore, Berea at Berea, Centre at Danville, Eastern Kentucky State Normal at Richmond, Langdon Memorial at Mt. Vernon, Lindsey-Wilson at Columbia, Margaret College at Versailles, Logan Female College at Russellville, Loretta Academy at Loretto, Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Louisville, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, St. Joseph's College at Bardonia and the University of Louisville.

The original quota of the Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, with the Rev. Dr. John R. Sampey as chairman, was $100. Dr. John R. Sampey as chairman, has raised the students voluntarily raised this quota to $500, then to $1,000, and have already subscribed $1,031. Science Hill School at Shelbyville, with Miss Jeanette Foster as chairman, has raised $213, and helped the committee in Shelby county send out letters, as the "du" ban is still on there. Berea College reports $5,400 raised and Naarath Academy at Bardonia reports $100. The college total to date is $15,868.

NEW PASTOR COMES TO LOCAL CHURCH WELL RECOMMENDED

Rev. I. Garland Penn, the new pastor of Scott M. E. Church, having been selected by Bishop William F. Anderson to take the place of Rev. Delaney, comes to his new charge highly recommended as will be seen from the following statement from a Batavia, Ohio, paper:

On October 17, 1918, Bishop William F. Anderson appointed Rev. I. Garland Penn, Jr., as pastor at Maysville, Ky., to fill the vacancy made by Rev. Frank Delaney, who was called to Chicago, Ill., to enter the Sunday school work. Rev. Penn, while pastor at Batavia, Ohio, in six months paid off the mortgage on the church, renovated the parsonage, and paid many other long-standing debts. The Clermont county papers, in speaking of the appointment, said no colored minister in Batavia has been more highly respected by both white and colored people than he, being a hard, earnest worker who has won a warm spot in the hearts of all. He was recommended to Bishop Anderson by Chief Justice Hugh L. Nichols of the Supreme Court of the State of Ohio.
